Son, "Toronto Star"; Elbert H. Baker, "Cleveland Plain Dealer"; Hilton U. Brown, "Indianapolis News"; D. D. Moore, "New Orleans Times-Picayune". Officers of the Bureau of Advertising elected included: Chairman, William F. Rogers, "Boston Transcript"; vice-chairman, Lafayette Young jr., "Des Moines Capital"; treasurer, Howard Davis, The New York Tribune.

The resolution condemning the excess profits tax also urged Congress to effect an immediate "epeal of this tax, and to adopt in its place a flat tax or some other practical sort of levy. Another resolution placed the association on record as being opposed to the Waldorf-Asteria yesterday, went on record as being opposed to the 44-hour week for employees and the excess profits tax also urged Congress to effect an immediate "epeal of this tax, and to adopt in its place a flat tax or some other practical sort of levy. Another resolution placed the association on record as being opposed to the tax an order given to a publisher to run the same advertisement again will result in the first day's setting being level and the first day's setting being level and the first day's setting being level and provided the association of teaching more apprentices, to overcome the shortage of the pressive. Several other resolutions well as the discontinuance of the government's tremendous mailing list.

remember all the bitter attacks through the years of Hearst on Johnson and Johnson on Hearst, and now that they have formed this alliance they are inclined to believe that in the past each man was telling the truth about the other.

"Now, Hearst having once or twice tried to be elected President himself and having failed, the people out in my state are worrying for fear that he is gunning now for the Presidency by proxy. In other words, they are keenly aware that he virtually made himself Mayor of New York by electing his own creature, Hylan, whom he could control. "Another phase of Johnson's campaign in the East which can be illuminated by the folks back home is his claim that he has no financial backing and is the representative of the plain people. Nine of his twenty-six Galifornia delegates are millionaires, their

Defeat of Jenks Bills Said to Preclude Building
The effect on the Interborough Rapid Transit Company of the failure of the Jenks bills to pass the Legislature, which apparently will preclude any fare increases for some time to come, was discussed yesterday by James L. Quackenbush, counsel for the Interborough. While Mr. Quackenbush said it would not mean a receivership for the company on July 1, when $5,000,000 or its obligations become due, he was uncertain whether it could avoid bankruptcy until January 1, 1921.

"Unless the city officials see the light in some manner," said Mr. Quackenbush as confiscatory.
